

Sadat Named President as Expected

By FAROUK NASSAR
Associated Press Writer
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Anwar Sadat today was formally proclaimed president of Egypt for the next six years after receiving a 90.4 per cent "yes" vote in the national referendum Thursday, Cairo radio said.

Sadat, 51 and Egypt's acting president since the death of Gamal Abdel Nasser on Sept. 28, got 6,432,587 yes votes to 711,252 nos, Interior Minister Sharawi Gomaa told a broadcast news conference. He said there were 13,814 invalid votes.

Gomaa said 85 per cent of the eligible voters turned out. Sadat's election by an overwhelming majority was assured by an intensive nationwide campaign on his behalf by other leaders and Egypt's controlled press and radio. There was no other candidate, and no opposition to Sadat was heard in public.

Meanwhile, shooting broke out in the heart of Amman early Thursday night as Palestinian guerrillas distributed Fatah, the commando newspaper. One guerrilla was critically wounded, and an unconfirmed report said he died in a hospital.

Eyewitnesses said Jordanian security forces opened fire on a car carrying several commandos. The car caught fire and burned. Its back seat was filled with hundreds of charred copies of the newspaper.

It was the second shooting incident involving the paper. Shooting had broken out in the morning near the plant at which it was printed.

The wounded man was believed to be the driver of the car.

The shooting came less than 48 hours after King Hussein and guerrilla leader Yasser Arafat signed a new agreement. Under the agreement, the commandos are allowed to publish and distribute their newspaper, the most widely read in Amman, with its two-thirds Palestinian population. It was the first daily paper to reappear since the fighting between the army and guerrillas began Sept. 17.

31 Bodies Recovered in Bridge Mishap

By GORDON TAIT
Associated Press Writer
MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Searchers returned to the rubble of the West Gate Bridge today, seeking 12 missing men, after a 90-minute scare that an adjoining span was about to go.

Thirty-one bodies were recovered Thursday after a 450-foot span of the bridge collapsed, partly into the Yarra River and partly on a group of huts where workmen building the $47-million bridge were having lunch. Eighteen persons were killed. Some of the unrecovered bodies could be seen in the rubble.

Another 18 workmen were injured, and seven of them were in critical condition.

The recovery work was suspended temporarily when an emergency crew of six riggers on an adjoining 450-foot section of the bridge felt it moving. They came down and refused to go up again.

Police kept people away from the span while six engineers went up to inspect it. The project manager, Trevor Nixon, analyzed their findings and pronounced the 130-foot-high span "quite safe."

"We believe this shudder was most likely caused by the metal of the bridge heating up and expanding, thus causing the rollers on which the span is mounted to move," Nixon said. "It is designed to do this."

He said another possibility was that a crane touched a guy wire leading to the span, causing the wire and the span to move.

Nixon said it would take several days to search through the rubble of the fallen span and that a 100-ton crane would be needed to get the bodies out.

Among those killed was Jack Hindshaw of London, chief engineer with the design architects. A union organizer said Hindshaw held a meeting six weeks ago to explain to workmen why the bridge was considered safe. The men were afraid because of the collapse June 2 of the Milford Haven Bridge in Wales, a similar type of bridge designed by the same architects.

Hindshaw "told us that a different method of construction was being used which made the bridge safe," said the union man, James O'Neill. "A major disaster like this just can't be foreseen. The constructors were very conscious of the safety of workmen on the project."

The 1.6-mile, eight lane bridge was scheduled to be opened next year. It will be Australia's largest.

The unions have now withdrawn all labor from the project, and six inquiries are planned.

Pierre Vallieres and Jacques Larue-Langlois. The three spoke Thursday night at a student rally supporting the political aims of the FLQ-independence for Quebec.

With Canadian troops already helping police maintain security in Quebec Province, the Defense Department moved the 1,000 men of the Canadian Armed Forces Airborne Regiment from Edmonton in the Western province of Alberta to St. Hubert, near Montreal.

The Royal Canadian Regiment, stationed at Camp Gagetown, N.B., was moved to Camp Valcartier, near Quebec City.

tivated in Vietnam next year, and meanwhile the 25th Division will be filled out by its 4th Brigade which already is in Hawaii.

In Cambodia, a one-hour battle between Cambodian and Communist troops led to reports that the district town of Roka Kong, 20 miles north of Phnom Penh, had fallen to the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong. Associated Press correspondent Robin Mannock reported from the scene that the reports were incorrect.

He said a North Vietnamese force moved into the area a little over a week ago and settled down on the outskirts of the town, a key point in the Cambodian capital's ring of defense.

The Cambodian and North Vietnamese troops know each other are there and live in a kind of uneasy accommodation with each other, Mannock reported, but now and then a skirmish breaks out. One such fight took place Thursday when Cambodians spotted about 20 North Vietnamese and began a furious exchange of machine-gun fire, rockets and mortars. A Cambodian woman and a small girl were wounded.

There was also no indication that government reinforcements were on the way to the town as the military command had reported in Phnom Penh. Mannock said no troops were to be seen on the road to Roka Kong, and a Cambodian lieutenant in the town said that although he was awaiting reinforcements, "we can hold out okay."

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP) — Tyree Rogers, 22, of Memphis was struck and killed Thursday night as he attempted to cross Interstate 40 about 2 1/2 miles west of West Memphis.

Authorities said Rogers apparently had car trouble and flagged down a truck for assistance. Officers said he was struck by a car driven by C. C. Walker, 26, of Forrest City as he started to cross the interstate.

Youth Held for Slaying of Grandmother

DUXBURY, Mass. (AP) — A 16-year-old boy was held without bail today charged with the bludgeoning death of his grandmother, Mrs. Cid Ricketts Sumner, author of the "Tammy" books.

The body of the 79-year-old authoress was found in her home Thursday by police. A hammer, believed to be the death weapon, also was found.

The suspect, John R. Cutler, pleaded innocent in Plymouth District Court to a charge of being a delinquent by reason of murder, authorities said.

Police said the youth walked into the police station early Thursday and gave information that led to the discovery of Mrs. Sumner's body.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cutler. His father is the editor of the local newspaper, the Duxbury Clipper, and author of several books, including "Cardinal Cushing of Boston." Mrs. Cutler is the victim's daughter.

Mrs. Sumner was the author of three books which were made into movies: "Tammy Out of Time," "Tammy Tell Me True," and "Quality," which was renamed "Pinky," in the film version.

She was the widow of James B. Sumner, the Nobel Prize winner in chemistry in 1946.

Besides her novels, Mrs. Sumner published a number of poems and short stories.

GM Strike to Slow Economy Upturn

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Writer
HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — There is rising concern among the nation's industrialists that continuation of the General Motors strike may prevent an otherwise expected upturn of the U.S. economy.

Except for the month-old strike by the United Auto Workers, members of the prestigious Business Council say privately they would look for a business upswing by the end of the year.

About 100 council members, including the heads of scores of the nation's largest corporations are in this Virginia resort city for closed meetings with high administration officials. All the members of President Nixon's economic high command are scheduled to participate this weekend.

The widespread effect of the GM strike, now beginning to spread its paralysis among supplier industries, was seen as a strong key to the economy's health—including unemployment.

Council members generally felt the September jobless rate of 5.5 per cent is about as high as unemployment will go, unless the GM strike goes on for very long.

"If the strike is not settled within a few weeks—say by Thanksgiving—I think we will be going downhill at New Years," one manufacturing company president said privately.

A settlement on the other hand, could do much to improve the economic outlook by restoring the confidence of consumers, the business leaders agreed.

DOES FUDDY-DUDDY MAKE SENSE?

Dear Helen:
Being over 30 I shouldn't write this letter because I'll be stereotyped as an old fuddy-duddy BUT—

Suppose you were walking down your Main Street and you observed a group of young people shouting and giggling in a foreign language, but obviously making fun of everything they see.

This group continues down the street, entering a shop. They handle everything in sight, snickering all the while. When one decides to buy, he hauls out more money than the shop owner makes in a week and says, expecting the man to understand his language, "Hey, figure this out for me—I can't understand your funny foreign mones." Then they leave, bragging about how they snuckered the guy out of a bargain.

Later, buying a round of drinks—which they're too young to manage—they flop their expensive tourist cameras down on the bar, toss their money beside them and demand service.

This is the picture Europeans get of our new breed of "Ugly Americans," the affluent kids whose parents turn them loose overseas without supervision, and without instilling courtesy for their hosts in a foreign country.

We saw them more than once on our trip to Europe this summer. Either they were throwing their money—and insults—around, or they were of the unwashed, hippie variety who came over for the "trip" and perhaps ended up in jail on drug charges.

May I suggest that American parents keep their kids home, or accompany them on "the grand tour" — unless they can teach them manners? Why not send them out into their own country to see its ugliness as well as its beauty. It might be a sobering experience! —CONCERNED

Dear Helen:
Your item about "Twelve," the national Prayer for Peace, intrigued me. I've got our church interested, and other organizations are following suit.

Could you give us a few samples of what those 12-word prayers should include?—INTERESTED

Dear Interested:
The Synod of the Golden Gate, sponsors of the Middy Prayer for Peace, has sent me a batch of samples. Anyone who wishes a copy may have one. Just send your request and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Should you want further information on beginning such a program in your town, write to: Synod Of The Golden Gate, 330

Ellis Street, San Francisco, Calif., 94102. —H.

Dear Helen:
I have been dating a man for a year now and we care for each other very much. Today I tried to find out what he wants for his birthday. He told me flat out that I was not to get him anything, as wasn't going to observe my birthday in any way.

He didn't even send me a card on other holidays—Christmas, Valentine's Day, etc., but I thought it was only because we weren't good friends then. Now I'm doubtful if he'll ever give me a Christmas present. It isn't that I'm mercenary—I just want to know he thinks of me on these special days. Isn't it natural to want to buy a gift for someone you care about?

Helen, am I wrong to expect some token of affection? He came from Rome, Italy, five years ago. Maybe he just doesn't know our customs. He didn't even wish me Merry Christmas last year! —HOPEFUL BUT NOT HOPING

Dear HBNH:
When in the U.S., a Roman should follow our customs. You know our fella well enough to discuss this with him now. So do! —H.

Orioles Take Series in 9-3 Victory

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — All the clouds have rolled by for the Baltimore Orioles, basking in a shower of champagne after they turned a rainy payday into a World Series bonanza.

The Orioles battered the Cincinnati Reds 9-3 Thursday at rain-drenched Memorial Stadium to complete a five-game blitz of baseball's 67th summit battle, pocket winners' shares of $15,000-plus per-player and rid themselves of the stigma of last year's Series setback at the hands of the upstart New York Mets.

"It's payday, and we had to come out to pick up our checks," Orioles Manager Earl Weaver said before the American League champions rode a 15-hit barrage and the left arm of Mike Cuellar to the Series clinching triumph over a power-laden but pitching-thin Cincinnati club.

Baltimore's fourth victory in five games closed out the best-of-seven series and gave the Orioles whopping bonuses in addition to their regular, twice-monthly pay envelopes. Moreover, it vindicated their claim to major league supremacy after a year of attrition.

"The money is a great reward but the personal satisfaction of being the best ball club means more," said Frank Robinson, who led the Orioles to their initial series conquest five years ago against Los Angeles and started their final charge Thursday with a two-run homer.

"This makes up for everything," said Brooks Robinson, whose clutch hitting and sensational defensive play earned him landslide acclaim as the most valuable player in the series. "Nothing can replace winning for the first time (1966), but there's more satisfaction bouncing back to do it again."

The Orioles, beaten in five games by the Mets last October, rebounded with 108 regular season wins—the last 11 in succession—then swept the AL pennant playoffs in three games and won three more from the Reds before Lee May's three-run eighth inning homer snapped the 17-game streak Wednesday.

That victory kept Cincinnati alive, but the Orioles applied the death blow Thursday as Cuellar shackled the Reds on six hits.

"This year, we had a little added incentive," said Paul Blair, whose nine hits matched Brooks Robinson's record-tying total for a five-game series. "We worked harder to make things go our way."

"The Mets did everything they had to do to win last year—just like we did in this Series. But I don't think we played up to our capability against them."

Cuellar, a 24-game winner during the season but an early knockout victim in the second Series game, was at his best Thursday after a shaky start. He yielded three runs on four hits in the first inning, then checked the Reds on two harmless singles the rest of the way. "A typical Cuellar game," said Harry Dalton, the Orioles' front office boss. "He has first inning troubles, then zip, zip, zip."

Heavy morning rains preceded the Reds' opening salvo—and a deluge of Baltimore hits followed it.

Frank Robinson, 6-for-9 in the first two games at Cincinnati last weekend, closed the gap in bottom of the first with his second homer of the Series.

The Orioles scored two runs in the second to take the lead and added two more in the third, another in the fifth on Merv Rettenmund's homer and a final pair in the eighth.

Blair and Dave Johnson led the assault against six Cincinnati pitchers with three hits apiece.

"We had deep respect for the Reds but I think we caught them short on pitching," said Brooks Robinson who received a new car as the Series MVP following his 9-for-21, two-homer binge.

"Sure, we used 18 pitchers in the Series," said Red Manager Sparky Anderson. "But I've got to do what the scoreboard shows. They just kept hitting us. Give Baltimore batters the credit."

The Orioles banged out 50 hits in the five games. Their 10 home runs set a record for a five-game set.

"Baltimore just came out hungry and whipped us," Anderson said. "I think they went out to prove something this year, and they did. They had to live all year with the fact that the Mets beat them."

"I know how Earl must feel. He's on Cloud Nine. He had to eat crow last year. Now I'm eating crow."

"This is just a superb ball club, an outstanding ball club," Weaver said as his players reveled in a champagne-splashing, shaving cream-squirting victory party—and caravans of horn-toting cars began clogging the downtown streets in a wild celebration of the Orioles' second world championship.

Believes Carr Will Lead ASU to Victory

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas State University's Johnnie Carr must be the best second team tailback in the Southland Conference.

Carr replaced Calvin Harrell Saturday when ASU's workhorse injured his knee against Trinity University and gained 122 yards on 22 carries. He also lobbed a 74-yard touchdown pass as the Indians' protected their unbeaten string with a 21-14 victory.

Carr, a 178-pound junior, is one of the reasons ASU is expected to continue its winning ways against Louisiana Tech at Jonesboro Saturday night.

Harrell, who weighs 213, led the Southland Conference in rushing as a sophomore but he and Carr were battling for the No. 1 tailback slot entering fall practice last year. However, a week before the season opener, Carr fell on his shoulder and

Big Game of Season for Both Teams

By BILL MOORE

Tonight the Hope Bobcats face possibly the toughest game of the year when they host the Arkadelphia Badgers, here, on homecoming.

Both teams are undefeated in conference play and this game could possibly have all the marbles riding on it. The winner could possibly go on to take the 4AA crown and win the state playoffs, but everyone will have to wait and see.

The Badgers can still remember that saddening 14-7 homecoming loss last year that knocked them out of the 4AA crown and they will certainly be trying to turn the tables this year.

A packed stadium is expected for the 7:30 p.m. kickoff and if you can't make it to the stadium, KXAR will broadcast the game with Mike Huckabee calling the play-by-play.

Arkansas AM&N isn't eligible to compete for the AIC title this year, but the Golden Lions can compare strength with Ouachita, one of the conference's best, Saturday night at Arkadelphia.

AM&N lost to Southern University, a perennial power in the Southwestern Athletic Conference, last week and dropped to 3-1.

Ouachita, which is 4-0, features the running of Johnny Baker, who has racked up 890 yards rushing in four games.

This one should be close but Ouachita has the home field advantage.

Bobkittens Win Over Nashville

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Last night in Hammons Stadium, the Hope Bobkittens scored on their first possession and stopped the Nashville Scrappers, 20-0, for their second straight win after three opening losses.

The Kittens next game is at home, against the Magnolia Panthers, next Thursday night at 7:30 p.m.

After holding Nashville and forcing a punt from the kickoff, the Bobkittens set up play from their own 41 with 5:50 to go in the opening period.

Large gains by David Huddleston and Terry Smith with good blocking in the middle moved the ball to the Nashville 26 yard line. On a second and four play, Smith followed his blocking for 22 yards to the Scrapper 4.

Two plays later quarterback Gary Rhodes kept into the end zone from one yard out and after the extra point attempt was blocked, Hope was holding a 6-0 lead with 1:52 to go in the first period.

Four plays later Hope took a Scrapper punt at their own 34, and moving into the second quarter, began to march down the field again. Three straight passes totaled up 46 yards to the Nashville 19, and after Huddleston and Rhodes ran it to the seven yard line, Rhodes found Smith all alone heading toward the coffin corner for the second score.

Huddleston followed his blocking into the end zone for two extra points and with 4:38 left in the first half, the Kittens held a 14-0 lead.

No other threats were mounted and at halftime, Hope held a convincing lead that looked very satisfying as the Kittens left the field.

The second half began and the Hope defense took up where it had left off, bottling up Nashville for hardly any yardage. Letting Nashville have no first downs so far, the Kittens consistently stopped the opponents every possession and until late in the game at that point Hope's offense had sputtered the last half.

With the clock showing 2:07 left in the game, James Robinson relieved Rhodes at quarterback and on the first play at the Scrapper 20, rambled up the middle for the third Kitten score. The PAT was no good but a few moments later the victory was wrapped up.

The last few plays of the game saw Nashville trying to drive down and break the scoring jinx. They drove to the Hope 29, their deepest penetration of the night, before Robinson picked off a desperation pass with only six seconds showing.

The Kittens scored early and kept going through the game, reducing mistakes and penalties, improving over all and when they meet Magnolia, they should be ready.

Arkansas' Robinson Series Hero

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — The champagne party taking place in the Baltimore Orioles' dressing room was beginning to make its way toward Brooks Robinson's locker when Elrod Hendricks handed a bottle of the chilled bubbly to the World Series hero and delivered an admonition as well.

"This is for user, not abusers," said Hendricks as the Orioles spilled the stuff. "Don't drop it."

If Robinson had dropped the champagne, it would have been the biggest upset of the Series. He dropped nothing throughout the five games against Cincinnati and seemed to thoroughly demoralize the Reds with his fielding gems.

But Robinson's bat did its share of damage, too. He had nine hits in 21 swings, a .428 pace, that included two homers and six runs batted in and was a far cry from the 1-for-19 frustration he suffered in the 1969 Series against the New York Mets.

"This makes up for everything," said Robinson, "the four straight losses, the 1-for-19 ... everything."

Robinson went into the 1969 Series swinging a hot bat. He had seven hits in 14 chances in the playoff sweep against Minnesota and was looking forward to the Mets.

"I really felt great going into that Series," said Robinson. "Then, nothing."

This year, he repeated his hot playoff stream with a 7-for-12 performance in three games against Minnesota.

"But after what happened last year, I decided not to think about it. I went in hoping for the best."

Brooks socked a game-winning homer in the opener, drove in the tying run as the Reds came from behind to take No. 2, smacked a pair of doubles in the third game triumph and went 4-for-4 in the Orioles' only loss.

He had one hit in Thursday's 9-3 wrapup victory and took a called third strike in the eighth inning, his final swing.

When Brooks wheeled to walk toward the Orioles' dugout, the Memorial Stadium crowd of 45,341, gave him a standing ovation.

"I heard it," said Robinson, "and I appreciated it. But I was still mad about taking that third strike."

So, as he had all through the Series, Robinson took out his mad on the Reds with his glove. The Birds had the game all but won when he put the finishing touch on with a diving stab of Johnny Bench's ninth-inning liner in foul territory.

Stanford to Get Another Rugged Test

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
"Jim Plunkett is just amazing. He knew the patterns that would go and he read the Southern Cal defenses like a pro. He might be better than Roman Gabriel. Not in a few years ... I mean right now."

The speaker was former Stanford and pro quarterback Gary Kerkorian sounding off after the Indians' 24-14 victory over Southern California last weekend.

The Plunkett-Gabriel comparison is likely to trigger a rash of arguments but right now Plunkett will settle for being better than Steve Ramsey ... and that may happen Saturday against Washington State at Spokane.

Plunkett needs 214 yards either passing or rushing to become major college football's all-time total offense leader. Ramsey, who wound up his career at North Texas State last season, compiled 6,568 yards.

Stanford's impressive triumph shot the Indians up to ninth place in The Associated Press poll and into the forefront for the race to the Rose Bowl as the only unbeaten team in Pacific-8 Conference play.

Texas, ranked second, and Arkansas, No. 10, have the week off but top-rated Ohio State is at home against rugged Minnesota and third-ranked Notre Dame is at No. 18 Missouri for a national TV game (ABC-TV, 3:30 p.m., EDT).

Elsewhere, No. 4 Mississippi entertains Southern Mississippi, No. 5 Nebraska at Kansas, Michigan State at No. 6 Michigan, No. 7 Air Force vs. Navy at Washington, D.C., and Georgia Tech, No. 16, at eighth-ranked Auburn.

Ohio State and Minnesota are locked in a five-way tie for the Big Ten lead—and the other Rose Bowl berth—with Iowa, Michigan and Northwestern, all with 1-0 conference records.

Larry Zelina, who missed the Michigan State game, likely will return to action for the Buckeyes but defensive tackle Ralph Holloway is doubtful.

record against the Big Eight but oddly enough this is the first meeting with Missouri. Both sides are crying the injury blues, with Irish guard Larry DiNardo and Missouri halfback Joe Moore the more prominent cripples.

Mississippi unveils its artificial turf in Hemingway Stadium. The Rebels also have the real thing in quarterback Archie Manning, who should be able to rest his pulled groin muscle for a spell if Ole Miss, as expected, breezes past Southern.

Barring a tie, the Nebraska-Kansas winner will take over the Big Eight lead. Kansas running back John Riggins is 604 yards behind Gale Sayers' school career rushing record.

A crowd of 103,000 will watch the Michigan-Michigan State contest at Ann Arbor and the result might be a tipoff on how good the unbeaten Wolverines are. The last two weeks State has dropped identical 29-0 decisions to Notre Dame and Ohio State.

Major college football returns to Washington's Robert F. Kennedy for the first time in four years with Air Force bringing in the nation's total offense leader, Bob Parker, for some naval warfare.

Georgia Tech tries to rebound from its first 1970 defeat and to derail the mighty Auburn express at the same time ... but without injured rushing ace Brent Cunningham.

Among Second Ten teams, it's Washington at No. 11 Southern Cal, No. 12 Arizona State at Brigham Young, Oklahoma at No. 13 Colorado, Alabama at No. 14 Tennessee, Kentucky at No. 15 Louisiana State, No. 17 Texas Tech at Mississippi State and Oregon State at Houston, which is tied for 19th with UCLA. The Bruins are at California.

The weekend gets under way Friday night with Tampa at Miami, Fla.

SPORT SHORTS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
SEBRING, Fla. (AP) — Comedian Dick Smothers will try to raise his ninth-place slot in the Continental racing circuit standings when he drives a Lotus in the L&M Continental sports car race Oct. 25.

Smothers, a regular competitor in Continental events, will be at the wheel of one of two Echlin Ignition Lotus Specials on the 2.2 Sebring course.

Manager Says Redlegs Will Be Back

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds already had youth as an ally. Now they've got experience, the bitter experience of a five-game World Series beating by Baltimore, in their bid to become one of baseball's teams of the future.

"I have a hunch we'll be back here in 1971," a sober Red Manager Sparky Anderson said after Orioles bombers clubbed the National League pennant winners 9-3 Thursday to win the Series four games to one.

"I'm not predicting any pennant," the youngest manager in baseball said.

"But whoever beats us will have to play hellacious baseball. If this did anything for us, it showed we will have to work even harder next spring," Anderson, 36, said.

"We think we'll be even better next year," he said. "It gave our young players a chance to get their feet wet. They know what to expect now."

Right fielder Pete Rose, who with second baseman Tommy Helms, is the oldest starting Red at 29, backs Anderson.

"Even if we lost, what do you think our young talent gained from this? Next year we'll know what we're playing for," the Cincinnati captain said.

Catcher Johnny Bench is 22, first baseman Lee May 27, shortstop Dave Concepcion 22, third baseman Tony Perez, 28, left fielders Bernie Carbo 23 and Hal McRae 24 and center fielder Bobby Tolan 24.

Gary Nolan, a right-hander who won 18 and lost 7 during the season and started two Series games, is 22. Jim Merritt, a 20-game winner and the loser Thursday, is 26 and second game starter Jim McGlothlin 27.

Wayne Simpson, a 21-year-old right-hander, was 14-3 when he hurt his arm in midseason. Two key men in the bullpen, lefty Don Gullett and Milt Wilcox, are 19 and 20.

Baltimore sluggers gave the crippled Cincinnati pitching staff—besides Simpson, Merritt and McGlothlin—were sore elbow cases—a good shelling in the Series.

GETS REFUND FOR TIME SCHOOL CLOSED
NEW YORK (AP) — A judge has awarded the father of a New York University student a partial tuition refund of $277.40 because the school canceled classes for 19 days during campus unrest last May.
Judge Patrick J. Picariello, making the award Wednesday in Small Claims Court to Roger Paynter, a fireman from Queens, declared:
"College administrators have yielded too easily to the demands of campus dissidents and have thereby ushered in an era of physical and intellectual intimidation."
The university, a private institution, said it would appeal the ruling.

Paynter, 49, who said he had been refused a refund when he first approached the university, sued on behalf of his son Raymond, 19, now an art education sophomore. He brought the action on grounds that by failing to provide classes for his son the school violated its contractual obligations.
Paynter commented afterwards: "I'm not out to get NYU. I was only fighting for the principle." He said the decision "could represent a test case ... After all, thousands of students all over the country were denied classes last year. This could open the floodgates."
The student strike, which affected many campuses in the nation, followed the dispatch of U.S. troops into Cambodia and the shooting of four students during a confrontation with the National Guard at Kent State University.

"If some students want to stay out, that's their prerogative," Paynter said. "But let the other students go to school."
The judge, in a seven-page decision, strongly assailed the disturbances on campuses. He noted that "there was no testimony or other evidence that the plaintiff's son participated ... in any wise in such conduct."
"There can be no substitute for the acceptance of responsibility for order and discipline on campuses by college administrators and college faculties," Picariello asserted.
"This is not accomplished by canceling classes and closing down school facilities."
He termed NYU's defense—based on its giving to each student at the beginning of the school year a bulletin stating that academic programs were subject to change without notice—"too specious to merit any consideration."
Earlier this week in U.S. District Court in Milwaukee, Wis., Judge Myron Gordon dismissed a similar suit brought by nine students against the University of Wisconsin, which remained open during the May disorders.
The students sought tuition refunds and other compensation on grounds that grades had been affected by class interruptions. Gordon ruled that the suit did not sufficiently show that constitutional rights had been deprived.

WHIRLPOOL GIVES TO COLLEGES
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Whirlpool Corp. of Benton Harbor, Mich., has made its annual gift of $8,000 to the Arkansas Foundation of Associated Colleges.
The gift will be distributed among the seven member colleges in Arkansas.

"THIS IS LARRY. Please take care of him. I can't support him." This message was found on a note pinned to this little boy's shirt. The 2-year-old was found abandoned in St. Louis, Mo., and was placed in a foster home while police searched for his parents.

After you get used to JACOBY MODERN limit raises and the simple ways to handle those hands with 13-16 points in support of partner's major-suit opening, we have an extra for you. It is the Jacoby Two No-trump, which is an artificial response to a first or second hand major-suit opening. It has nothing to do with no-trump but forces to game or higher in partner's major suit. The lower limit of strength for this bid is 13 points. There is no upper limit.

If the opening bidder has a singleton or a void, he replies by bidding three in that suit, irrespective of his strength. If he has a balanced hand, he jumps right to game if he has a minimum and bids three of his suit with a full king or more above a minimum.

This makes it impossible to respond two no-trump with the standard 13-15-point balanced hand but this is no loss at all. In fact, we have found this an added advantage. The standard two no-trump is a happy bid but it is totally unnecessary. You can always handle that hand some other way.

Now look at today's hand. With 12 high-card points opposite 11, it is doubtful if any other method would get to the cinch slam. Now watch the Jacoby Two No-trump at work.

South has a minimum but he must rebid three spades to show the singleton. North sees that all his points must be hard at work. He invites the slam by a cue bid of four clubs. South responds with four diamonds. He has a satisfactory hand to show diamond control. North takes over and uses Blackwood to check for aces before going to the lay-down slam contract.

Vikings and Rams Picked in Pro Play

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Los Angeles at Green Bay, Dallas at Minnesota and Detroit at Cleveland ... this is the week they separate the men from the boys, and maybe a few heads from a few shoulders in the National Football League.

Green Bay, Minnesota and Detroit are tied for the top in the bone-cracking Central Division of the National Football Conference, while Los Angeles, Dallas and Cleveland have at least a share of the lead in three other divisions of the NFC and the American Conference.

Five other teams—Baltimore, Miami, Denver, St. Louis and San Francisco—also will be trying to retain a share of some division lead.

It's pretty safe to say there won't be 11 leaders by Tuesday morning. That doesn't make it the best of weeks to come off the bench to fill in for the departed Jack Hand-picker. But, starting off at 0-0, let's see if we can come out in one piece. Here goes:

Sunday
Los Angeles 31, Green Bay 14—The Packers couldn't have picked a worst time to invite the Rams to Green Bay for a football game. Smarting from a 20-6 loss to San Francisco last week, the Rams offense will be out to make amends, and it won't have Packers injured linebacker Dave Robinson to trouble it. But there will be a lot of head-knocking anyway.

Minnesota 17, Dallas 10—Dallas produced a shutout last week, and it might take another one unless Craig Morton can get the Cowboys' offense untracked. He couldn't pick a tougher team to try against, particularly as the Vikings want that first victory in six tries against Dallas. A rugged defensive struggle.

Detroit 31, Cleveland 21—Detroit was probably looking ahead to this one when it was beaten by Washington last week. Bill Munson and returning Mel Farr get the offense back on the beam, while Alex Karras leads that vicious front four against Bill Nelsen and his troublesome knees.

New York Jets 30, Baltimore 24—Baltimore might want revenge from that Super Bowl loss, but the Jets need the victory more. And Joe Namath is expected to have back his top targets, George Sauer and Don Maynard, enabling him to score more points than his defensive secondary gives up.
Buffalo 23, Miami 20—O. J. Simpson and Dennis Shaw catch the Dolphins looking back to their big victory over the Jets last Sunday and looking ahead to their big game against Cleveland next Sunday.

Atlanta 21, Denver 17—Norm Van Brocklin isn't likely to take last week's shutout loss to Dallas sitting down, and that means the Falcons should be flying high. Anyway, first place was becoming too much of a burden for the Broncos.

St. Louis 34, Philadelphia 17—Cardinals usually do well against the Eagles, and this time should be no different with Philadelphia finishing the day as the NFL's only winless team. Jim Hart-Jackie Smith bound for a field day.

New Orleans 28, San Francisco 24—Upset special. If Bill Kilmer is to have a good day, it would be against his former mates, who might well still be celebrating last week's stunner over the Rams. Last year it was Saints 43-38. Looking for more of the same.

Kansas City 20, Cincinnati 10—The Chiefs have trouble against this club, but Len Dawson is back and the Bengals gave their best last week against Cleveland.

Houston 13, Pittsburgh 10—Steelers finally tasted success last week, but still need more offense, particularly against tough Oilers defense. Houston, possibly minus Charley Johnson, might have trouble scoring, too, against rugged Steelers.

San Diego 17, Chicago 13—Bears give it another good try without Gale Sayers, but how far can defense carry a team? Chargers want that first victory.

Boston 14, New York Giants 10—Giants barely got by Eagles last week, and you can be certain Joe Kapp will make Boston tougher to beat.

Monday Night
Oakland 34, Washington 24—Daryle Lamonia and Sonny Jurgensen give the television watchers a treat, but Redskins will have trouble matching last week's performance against Detroit, while Raiders are on the upswing after dropping Denver.

Hog Freshmen Slaughtered by OSC Frosh

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — The Oklahoma State freshmen, under the guidance of quarterback Brent Blackman, scored the first five times they got the ball Thursday and blasted the Arkansas freshmen 56-0.

OSU led 36-0 at the half. Tony Boxwell opened with the scoring with a 26-yard run and then Blackman tossed scoring passes of 32 and 17 yards to Tom Stremme.

Don Hardcastle relieved Blackman in the second half and hit on six of 13 passes, including a 14-yard scoring toss.

Coming Out Party for Rice, SMU

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
For Rice and Southern Methodist, it's a coming out party. But for Texas Christian and Texas A&M it's a classic fight for survival.

That's the Southwest Conference football weekend picture in a light schedule of games that shows Texas Tech's rugged Red Raiders trying to improve the SWC intersectional record of 16-11 in a battle with Mississippi State.

Rice and SMU collide in Dallas at 7:30 p.m. in the league opener for both teams. The Owls are 2-1 and SMU 2-2.

"The Owls have perhaps their best team in five or six years," said SMU coach Hayden Fry. "They really play that defense and will come right down your throat on offense."

SMU has won four of the last five games with the Owls and holds a series edge of 26-22-1.

NCAA all-time passing champion Chuck Hixson has yet to throw a touchdown pass against Rice although the Mustang ace has completed 49 passes for 508 yards in two games with the Owls.

Both clubs were idle last week. Rice has beaten VMI 42-0 and California 28-0. Louisiana State cooled off the Owls 24-0 at Baton Rouge.

SMU has lost to Oklahoma, Tennessee and defeated New Mexico State and Northwestern. Rice leads the SWC in total defense and passing defense. It has allowed only a 31 per cent completion percentage, an average of 85.3 passing yards per game, and one touchdown pass all season.

The Mustangs have the leading SWC rusher in Gary Hammond, the leading passer in Hixson and the leading receiver in Raymond Mapps.

Rice's offense is guided by Phillip Wood, who threw only eight times in the win over California.

If either A&M or TCU loses in College Station at 7:30 Saturday night, they can kiss the SWC race adios. Both teams have one loss. No team has ever won the SWC after losing two conference games.

The Aggies hold a 32-26-7 series lead but strangely TCU has the edge at Kyle Field—12-8-3.

The Aggies have victories over Wichita State and LSU, but have dropped encounters to Ohio State, Michigan and Texas Tech. TCU has defeated UT-Arlington, tied Wisconsin, and lost to Purdue, Arkansas and Oklahoma State.

The game should feature an aerial duel between junior quarterback Steve Judy of TCU and quarterback Lex James of Texas A&M. The Aggies are the No. 2 passing team in the SWC while TCU has a more balanced attack, but can strike swiftly overhead with Judy throwing to a number of fleet receivers.

Texas Tech has had its problems with Mississippi State and the 7:30 p.m. game in Jackson is not expected to be a cakewalk. The overall series stands 3-2-1 Tech.

Tech is 4-1 and Mississippi State is 3-2 for the season. The Rebels were impressive in victories over Oklahoma State and Georgia State quarterback Joe Reed burned the Red Raiders 30-26 last year. Reed, who lives only 18 miles from Lubbock, played for Baylor as a sophomore in 1967 before transferring.

The rest of the SWC clubs are idle.

Rogers Plans Mid-East Talk With Envoy

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers pursues the Middle East issue with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko tonight following talks with Egypt's foreign minister indicating how difficult it will be to get peace negotiations started.

"At the moment, I cannot say that there is any progress," Cairo's foreign minister, Mahmoud Riad, reported Thursday night after a session in Rogers' hotel suite lasting nearly two hours.

The two did agree to meet again during the current round-robin of conferences among foreign leaders attending the U.N. General Assembly's 25th anniversary session.

Riad addresses the General Assembly today, a speech which diplomats are watching closely for clues on Cairo's post-Nasser foreign policy.

On Thursday, he successfully sought General Assembly debate on the Arab-Israeli controversy starting Oct. 26, right after the anniversary observance ends. U.S. strategists have been cool to such a debate now, believing that quiet backstage diplomacy rather than public speechmaking is more likely to bring Arab-Israeli negotiations.

The Rogers-Gromyko sessions — another scheduled Monday night — will also range over President Nixon's new Vietnam peace offer, Berlin, strategic arms curb talks and other East-West issues. In a general way, these meetings will give U.S. policymakers a high-level sounding as to whether the Kremlin is turning to a hard line.

Backers of Nixon's "era of negotiations" policy have been particularly concerned over what they term blatant Soviet and Egyptian violations of the current Middle East cease-fire by setting up more missiles in the standstill zone along the Suez Canal.

Moscow and Cairo deny violating the U.S.-sponsored cease-fire deal. Israel says it won't return to the peace negotiations unless the missiles are pulled back. And Rogers is seeking enough "rectification" of the alleged violations to get the Middle East opponents into conference.

U.S. officials said Rogers took up the alleged violations with Riad. They gave no indication that he made any headway on this point though they said the discussion was friendly.

Riad, speaking to newsmen afterward, declined to discuss the alleged violations but agreed with the U.S. officials that "this time we didn't come to any specific agreement."

Group Meets, Discusses Low Cost Housing

A group of Housing Developers, Builders, Crafts men, and Realtors met at the Douglas Building at 7:00 p.m., this week, to discuss low cost housing programs. Section 235 of the National Housing Act.

Wilson Porter, Chief of Mortgage Credit Section, of the HUD Area Office in Little Rock explained the provisions of Section 235. Questions and answers were given to all pertinent points.

The group was called together by the Housing Authority of Hope, as a part of its Urban Renewal work.

The need for execution of Housing under this section was stressed as was the correlation of it with the execution of the planned Urban Renewal Project.

There was a response that local people were interested and would be proceeding to produce housing under the 235 program.

Those in attendance were: Jack Lowe; David Brown; Jack Reynard; Eugene Ferguson; Arthur Strehc; T. S. McBay; Harold Poole; Joe Dillard; Coy Breeding; Carlton Valentine; Horace Samuels; Leonard Ellis; Glen Calloun; and Leonard O'Dell.

New Economic Report Could Be Handy in Countering Charges

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the off-year election less than three weeks away, the Nixon administration has received new economic data that could be handy in countering campaign charges that the nation is headed for a recession.

But Democrats, too, got what could be political ammunition from other major economic indicators announced Thursday.

While the Gross National Product, which measures the market value of the nation's total output in goods and services, climbed at a 6 per cent annual rate during the July-September period, industrial production fell sharply, by 1.7 per cent, during September.

The GNP rise represented moderately good political news for the administration. It indicated perhaps the first stages of recovery from the economic stagnation that began a year ago.

Paul W. McCracken, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, said "It is quite clear that the economy is on the threshold and probably in the early stages of substantial and vigorous expansion."

In talking with newsmen, McCracken said, "I think the evidence is clear that the rate of inflation has decelerated significantly."

But the climb wasn't as high as the administration had hoped. And because of the auto workers' strike, the inflation rate kept going up, to an annual rate of 4.4 per cent for the three-month period compared with 4.3 per cent for the previous quarter.

The Commerce Department said GNP for the third quarter totaled $95.2 billion at a seasonally adjusted annual rate, up $14.1 billion from the second-quarter figure.

The "real" GNP—which measures the nation's output without inflation—rose 1.4 per cent to $92.3 billion. The "real" GNP measures the value of goods and services produced during the three months in terms of 1958 dollars.

The United Auto Workers strike against General Motors held back the GNP again significantly. A Commerce Department

Important for Youths to Grow Up Quickly, Aged Can't Understand

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the things adults can't understand about children is why they are in such a hurry to grow up. To a child growing up is the all-important goal in life. If you ask him why he is so impatient to achieve this aim, he is likely to reply:

"Because nobody can tell a grown-up what to do. He can stay up late if he wants to, and doesn't have to eat everything that everybody tells him he has to. He can do anything he wants to all the time."

It is only after the child has been grown up a while that it dawns on him that he has merely gone from a small prison to a larger one, and that his expected greater freedom is a fraud. Then he wonders, too late, why he was so desperate to become an adult.

He looks back with yearning on the days before, and these are a few of the things he misses from his vanished childhood:

Asking a little girl friend if she'd like to play house. "You be the door, Marie, and I'll slam ment analyst said without the strike the rise would have been 6.7 per cent and the increase in actual output would have been about 2.5 per cent. In addition, he said, the inflation rate would have dropped to 4.2 per cent.

The strike's impact on the September industrial production index was dramatic. It fell to 166 per cent of the 1957-1959 average, the lowest figure in two years.

The Federal Reserve Board said the index was down from the 168.9 per cent registered in August and 4.9 per cent below the peak of July 1969.

The strike accounted for two-thirds of the decline, the board said, with the remainder reflecting decreases in production of consumer goods other than autos, business and defense equipment, and other materials.

Canada Has Invoked War Measures Act

OTTAWA (AP) — Police pounced on hundreds of separatists and sympathizers throughout Quebec Province today after Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau invoked Canada's tough War Measures Act—never before used in peacetime.

Trudeau put the act into force and declared Canada was threatened with insurrection by French Canadian separatists who have kidnapped a British diplomat and Quebec's Labor minister. A paratroop regiment from Alberta Province was moved to the Montreal area. The act gives the government almost unlimited power to deal with insurrectionists.

Trudeau acted after the separatists ignored 3 a.m. deadline for answering a Quebec provincial government offer to exchange five prisoners for the two men kidnapped last week, James R. Cross, British trade commissioner in Montreal, and Quebec Labor Minister Pierre Laporte. The kidnappers demanded the release of 23 men convicted or awaiting trial for terrorist activity.

Robert Lemieux, the Montreal lawyer negotiating with the provincial government on behalf of the kidnappers, rejected the offer as "incredible mockery" but the government did not consider this an answer from the terrorists, the Quebec Liberation Front or FLQ.

Two Montreal stations said Lemieux himself had been

A bomb shattered a side door of a police storefront center and injured two patrolmen Thursday night.

Officers Kenneth Fleming and Charles Robinson suffered multiple lacerations. They were admitted to Menorah Hospital where their conditions were reported as good.

Police said the type of explosive used in the bombing had not been determined. They said the device apparently was placed or thrown at the doorway.

There appeared to be no link between the bombing and any radical group, some of which have claimed credit for recent bombings in California, Washington State, New York and Massachusetts.

Turkey May Not Release Hijackers

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — The Turkish government will reject the Soviet government's demand for extradition of the father and son who hijacked a Soviet airliner Thursday if the pair can establish a valid political reason for seeking asylum, a government security official said today.

The Soviet government demanded the return of Brazinkas Koroyero, 46, and his son Algedas, 18, who commandeered a two-engine AN24 with 48 other persons aboard and forced it to land at the Black Sea port of Trabzon. A stewardess was killed and three crewmen were wounded in the hijacking.

A spokesman for the Turkish Foreign Ministry confirmed that the pair had asked for asylum. He said that if a true political motive could not be established, the hijackers would be treated as common criminals and possibly handed over to the Soviet authorities, even though Turkey and the Soviet Union do not have an extradition treaty.

The security official said the hijackers would probably be tried in Turkey on charges of murder and other felonies if given asylum.

Legal authorities pointed out that in a similar case of hijacking in 1948, when two Bulgarians seized a Bulgarian plane, forced it to land in Istanbul and wounded the two pilots, Turkish authorities refused to extradite the hijackers.

A spokesman for the Turkish Foreign Ministry said four Soviet Embassy officials had gone to Trabzon to look after the interests of the 43 passengers and four surviving crewmen. He said the return of the plane and its passengers to the Soviet Union "is internationally Turkey's duty" but that the extradition request "is a different and more complicated matter."

The plane, operated by the Soviet government airline, Aeroflot, was seized 10 minutes after it took off from the Georgian town of Batumi, on the eastern edge of the Black Sea, for Sukhumi, 100 miles to the north. The elder Koroyero told the Turks he and his son opened fire when the pilots refused to change course.

The stewardess, Natasha Kurcherko, 18, was killed as she tried to block the door to the SAIGON (AP) — The 25th Infantry Division is being pulled out of Vietnam, and two of its three brigades will be gone by Christmas, informed sources reported today.

The remaining two brigades of the 4th Infantry Division and the 5th Marine Regiment also will be withdrawn under President Nixon's new order reducing American forces in Vietnam by 40,000 troops before the end of the year. This will cut the total authorized American strength to 344,000 men.

As in previous troop withdrawals, soldiers who have not served most of a one-year tour in Vietnam will be transferred to units to complete their time. The 25th Division brigades will return along with the division headquarters to Hawaii, the division's home station. The brigades leaving are expected to be the 1st and 2nd, which already have been moved into the Saigon region.

The division's 3rd Brigade has been transferred to the operational control of the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment operating about 40 miles north of Saigon. It probably will be deactivated.

than 550 death sentences.

The standards argument is that jurors now have unconstitutional, arbitrary authority to choose between a death sentence and a lesser penalty in capital cases, meaning pure chance often determines whether a convicted man is to live or die.

The separation argument is that defendants should be able to decline to take the witness stand during trial but should be able, if convicted, to offer evidence against a possible death penalty.

Both procedures, if adopted, could actually increase the chances of a death sentence, said Solicitor General Erwin N. Griswold and Philip A. Lacombe, a special assistant to Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, in the brief requested by the court last June.

They said the nation is committed to trial by jury and to the assumption that juries act fairly, rationally and intelligently and reflect the conscience of the community.

"Neither this court nor any other has heretofore expressed anything but approval for the wisdom and fairness of entrusting flexible sentencing discretion to the trial juries in capital cases," they said.

As for adopting two-stage trials, as six states have done, the government lawyers said defendants always are under tactical pressures, such as whether or not to take the stand.

"The practical necessity of making difficult choices in defending a criminal charge, including a capital charge, does not establish that the procedures which occasion the election impermissibly burden the rights involved," the brief said.

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — A special state grand jury probing last May's Kent State University riot killings today indicted 25 persons, exonerated National Guard troops who fired on students, and sharply criticized the university administration.

It accused the university administration of fostering an attitude of laxity, over-indulgence and permissiveness with students and faculty "to the extent that it can no longer regulate the activities of either."

The jury's report, released by Common Pleas Judge Edwin Jones, defended Guardsmen who were on campus when four students were shot to death and nine others wounded May 4.

"We do not condone all of the activities of the National Guard on the Kent State University campus on May 4," the jury report said. "We find, however, that those members of the National Guard who were present on the hill adjacent to Taylor Hall (scene of the shooting) on May 4 fired their weapons in the honest and sincere belief and under circumstances which would have logically caused them to believe that they would suffer serious bodily injury had they not done so."

"They are not, therefore, subject to criminal prosecution under the laws of this state for any death or injury resulting therefrom."

The jury report stated that incidents, gatherings and rallies in the town of Kent on May 1 and on the campus May 2 and May 3 "constituted a riot."

It said a gathering on the campus May 4 was in violation of a directive issued by a university official and that the participants failed to disperse on orders.

"These orders," the report said, "caused a violent reaction and the gathering quickly degenerated into a riotous mob."

It noted that circumstances in the city of Kent after the afternoon of May 2 "necessitated the request for assistance of the National Guard."

The report noted that 58 Guardsmen were injured by objects thrown at them on May 4.
